

THE GAZETTE.

JANESVILLE WEDNESDAY, JUNE 25.

Private advices from Elkhorn indicate that Senator Cooper, of Racine, will be the coming man for congressional honors in this district.

According to the New Orleans Times-Democrat the census returns from some parishes in Louisiana indicate that the whites are increasing in a greater ratio than the blacks in that state. In Red River parish, for instance, the increase in the last decade has been, whites 44.2 per cent negroes 27.3 per cent.

Hon. A. M. Carter, chairman of the First District Congressional Committee, is in correspondence with his colleagues on the committee concerning the calling of the convention for the nomination of a republican candidate for congress. Mr. Carter informs the Gazette that the convention will probably be called to meet at Clinton Junction on September 31.

Mr. Walt Whitman writes to a friend in Boston that he is putting in order a little six or eight page annex to his book, and that he says, "I will probably be the finish," adding: "I get out almost daily in my wheel chair. Was out yesterday down to river shore, and stayed there an hour; cloudy weather now, fourth day, but entirely pleasant. Have a good nurse, sell a book occasionally, get along better than you might think, anyhow. Have some pretty bad spells, some talkers, bores, questioners (bats)." "A man working in the interest of the outrageous Louisiana lottery scheme has been lynched by an indignant mob. Northern men are accustomed to call lynching by its rightful name of murder, but this crime, bad as it is, serves to demonstrate how strong the feeling against the lottery company is. It will be a pity, indeed, if after the brave fight made by the better class of people in that state the owners of this shameful company are allowed to continue their business under the seal of approval of the Louisiana legislature.

In a paper which was read before the Congressional Association at Mount Holyoke the other day, Professor Morse of Amherst, attempted to show that the general withdrawal of the well-to-do to summer resorts is working a harmful separation in American society. It accentuates the division between the rich and the poor. Besides, the summer report movement takes away from civil life some of its most important elements, even the church joining in the begonia. There is a good deal in the point here made, and it is worthy of consideration by social philosophers.

An eccentric old gentleman recently knocked out a whole graduating class in a leading eastern college. He got the boys together, the day before commencement, and told them that he would give $10 to every man who would answer correctly two plain, everyday questions. The questions were as follows: "What is the origin of the common phrase 'to hope against hope'?" And "why is the human ear shaped as it is, instead of being flat?" Not a man answered the questions correctly, and the old gentleman went away declaring that colleges are a failure.

The population of New York city, according to the estimates given a day or two since by the supervisor of the census, amounts in round numbers to 1,700,000. The returns actually received so far foot up 1,627,227, and the outstanding reports of the thirty-five regular enumerators who were assigned to public and semi-public institutions, will, it is expected, easily bring the number up to 1,700,000. The population of the city therefore, shows an increase of half a million since the last census of 1880, when the number of the inhabitants was declared to amount to 1,200,000.

While all England says a writer in The Liverpool Mercury, is continuing to fete Mr. Stanley, it is not pleasant to reflect that his great predecessor in African exploration, Sir Richard Burton, is lying very dangerously ill, neglected and alone in London lodgings. Yet in his time and in his own way the elder traveler accomplished even more remarkable feats than the hero of the hour. His romantic pilgrimage to Mecca and Elabedineh in the disguise of a Moslem devotee, his journey through Berberah to the sacred city of Harar, where no other infidel foot has ever trodden, were but preliminaries to the great achievement of his life, the discovery paved the way for all that has since been done in Central Africa, and but for the failure of his resources, Captain Burton would undoubtedly have reaped much of the honor which has gone to others.

The cry of the opposition party in England against thecession of Heligoland is grotesque in view of the fact that for years past a stock demand of the Radicals has been that England should give up, not only that island, but other of her holdings, and that without money and without price. The price which England now receives for Heligoland is Zanzibar. The former may be the key to the German North Sea coast; but the latter is the key to all east Africa; and while England does not and probably never will want to use the former, she is even now using the latter to the tune of many million dollars a year, and in the immediate future will make use of it for unlocking incalculable stores of wealth. It is a noteworthy incident that, such a bargain, so important in its immediate bearings and so far-reaching in its ultimate effects, should have been concluded without a war or a rumor of war. The fact is almost unique in the history of European powers.

The recent Pan-American Congress, and the efforts now making under the leadership of Mr. Blaine to establish close commercial relations between the United States and the Southern Republics, recall to mind the concluding passage of an article by Eugene Lawrence, published in Harper's Weekly twenty years ago. It is a sketch of "Bolivar, Liberator of South America." Mr. Lawrence says: "That the hero of South American freedom is not better known among us is due to that strange want of interest which we have ever shown toward the history and condition of our republican neighbors in southern seas. Our merchants and our statesmen have turned coldly away from the allotment of their growing commerce, their progressive freedom. England and France have been allowed to engross three-fourths of their gainful trade. They have been shut out from the useful influence of our free press and our liberal literature. They enfranchise their slaves at an early period, and were never popular with the party that controlled our government. But it may be hoped that the time is near when the rich commerce of South America will be turned from London and Havre to San Francisco, and New York, and when, by a rapid intercommunion, the practical experience we have gained in liberal progress may prove of infinite use to the republics founded by Bolivar." It seems not improbable that all this may be realized, and that at no distant date.

The Great Benefit.

Which people in run down state of health derive from Hood's Sarsaparilla, conclusively proves that this medicine "makes the weak strong." It does not act like a stimulant, imparting fictitious strength, but Hood's Sarsaparilla builds up in a perfectly natural way all the weakened parts, purifies the blood, and assists to healthy action those important organs, the kidneys and liver.

KICKED HIS COURAGE UP.

How a Recruit Who Had No Sand Was Braced for the Battle.

The following story, told by an officer who served through the civil war, reveals a peculiar method of overcoming cowardice:

Just before the battle of Antietam five recruits came down for my company. There were no bounty jumpers at that state of the game, although the courage and patriotism of all the recruits could not be vouched for. One of the batch was named Danforth, a farmer's son fresh from the corn fields, and as we took up the line of march to lead Lee off and bring him to bay Danforth said to me:

"See here, sergeant, I've made a mistake."

"How?"

"I hadn't got no sand. I allus thought I had, but when I come down here and see what war is, I find I hadn't got the spunk of a rabbit."

"That's bad."

"So it is. We're going to have a fight pretty soon, and I know what'll happen. I shall bolt as sure as shooting."

"Then you'll be called a coward and disgraced forever."

"That's so, and I don't want it. I want you to do me a great favor."

"Well?"

"Wall, if I kin git mad I'll be all right, and forget my shaking. Keep your eye on me, and as soon as we git within five miles of the rebels kick me good and stout."

After some further talk I promised him. We were in Hooker's corps, and as we moved in against Jackson Danforth obliged alongside and said:

"Sergeant, kick me or I shall bolt. I haven't got sand enough to see a chicken die."

We were moving through the timber and I stepped behind him and "kicked" him twice as hard as I could kick. He shot aside and the next time I saw him we were at a fence on the edge of a corn field. The fire was hot and men were falling thick. I had just fired from a rest on the top rail when Danforth came up, faced the other way and said:

"More kicks, sergeant. I know I've dropped two of 'em, but my sand is going."

I kicked him again with a great deal of vigor, and just then we got the order to advance and he was the first man over the fence. Half an hour later we were driven back, considerably disorganized, and as I reached the fence I came across Danforth again. He had a rebel captain by the collar and was carrying the officer's sword in his hand. As he saw me he called out:

"Sand is all right, sergeant. No more kicks. As soon as I take this chap to the rear I'm going back and collar old Stonewall himself or die trying!"

A Natural Pride.

"Are you interested in athletics?" asked Miss Twillick of a young traveling man who had been paying her some attention.

"I didn't care much about these matters until recently."

"But you are exercising now?"

"I should say so. I can jump a ten-foot fence at one bound and outrun any blood-legged dog that ever infested a dooryard."

"And to think," she murmured fondly, "that it is to my father that you owe all this."

A Matter of Interest to Travelers.

Tourists, emigrants and mariners find that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is a medicinal safeguard against unhealthy influences, upon which they can implicitly rely, since it prevents the effects of an unhealthy climate, a malarial atmosphere, unaccustomed or unwholesome diet, bad water, or other conditions unfavorable to health, would otherwise produce. On long voyages, or journeys by land in latitudes adjacent to the equator, it is especially useful as a preventive of the febrile complaints and disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels, which are apt to attack natives of the temperate zones sojourning or traveling in such regions, and is an excellent protection against the influence of extreme cold, sudden changes of temperature, exposure to damp or extreme fatigue. It not only prevents intermittent and remittent fever, and other diseases of a malarial type, but eradicates them, a fact which has been notorious for years past in North and South America, Mexico, the West Indies, Australia and other countries.

BITTEN BY MAD DOGS.

The Illinois Central Strike Assumes Serious Proportions—Especially to Suburban Traffic.

ALL TRAFFIC SUSPENDED AT CHICAGO.

Passenger, Suburban and Freight Business Paralyzed by the Action of the Employees.

CHICAGO, June 25.—The Illinois Central strike has assumed serious proportions, inasmuch as it now involves the important suburban traffic of the road. Yesterday afternoon 1,000 conductors, switchmen, and brakemen in the employ of the Illinois Central quit work, owing to the announced intention of the railroad to dismiss Trainmaster Berry and his assistant, Irvin E. Pushe. Mr. Berry and Mr. Pushe heard of this, and going to headquarters learned that the story was true. They thereupon promptly resigned. The news spread rapidly through the yards and aroused the switchmen and trainmen to such a pitch of indignation that they immediately decided to quit work. Superintendent Russell has repeatedly given offense, it is alleged, by promoting his favorites over the heads of old employees, and the men were all the more ready to strike and remain out until such time as Superintendent Russell should be dismissed from the service of the company.

Yesterday afternoon all suburban and Washington park trains were allowed to run, but this morning it was decided to take radical measures. A meeting of the strikers was held at an early hour in the downtown yards, and the men decided to stop the running of all trains except those carrying the United States mail.

Accordingly, as fast as the suburban trains came in this morning they were side-tracked, the men ordered off, and they were not allowed to go out on the south-bound runs. These trains reach the Illinois Central downtown depot at intervals of about eight or ten minutes during the early morning hours, and this morning they were blocked up, suburban trains, freight trains, and through and way passenger trains being mixed in almost inextricable confusion. The last Illinois Central suburban train arrived at the downtown street depot at about 8:30, and the train men announced that would be the last suburban train to come in or go out until the question as to Superintendent Russell's retention was decided one way or the other.

After issuing the order regarding the stoppage of all trains except those bearing the United States mail, the men held a short conference, at which it was decided to wait, as soon as possible, upon the Illinois Central officials and lay this ultimatum before them: Either Supt. Russell must be dismissed, or the suburban and through traffic of the Illinois Central will be tied up. It is believed that at this meeting some amicable arrangement will be made, as both the men and the officials of the road are anxious to avoid trouble, if possible.

At 10 o'clock the strikers agreed to let Supt. Russell express his opinion on the mail car of the St. Louis train, and at 10:15 the two cars and an engine pulled out, no passenger coaches being attached.

The local interest in this strike centers in the fact that the men are blocking suburban traffic of the Illinois Central, for a time at least, paralyzed, and thousands of Chicagoans who depend upon that road for transportation to and from their homes are seriously inconvenienced. The Illinois Central suburban system is one of the most extensive in the world. As far south as Pullman and Kensington on the one branch and Windsor Park and Cheltenham beach on the other five men doing business in Chicago who have no other convenient means of getting into the city.

BITTEN BY MAD DOGS.

Citizens of Hancock, Ill., the Victims—Use of a Madstone.

CARTHAGE, Ill., June 25.—There are two more victims of mad dogs in Hancock county—a son of William Van Riddle of Bowen and Frank Wilson, a well-known citizen of LaCrosse. Both were bitten by supposed rabid dogs, and are being treated by the Denver madstone. A mad dog ran through Carthage this morning, and one dog that it had bitten has been killed.

Only Common Bandits.

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, June 25.—The revolution in Mexico turns out to be an attempt of bandits to plunder the people. Last Friday the bandits attacked a train near Monterrey loaded with gold and silver bullion for the United States. In the fight that ensued four bandits were killed and their leader captured and shot.

Making Good Use of Convicts.

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 25.—Gov. Morrill has given his sanction to the report of the committee recently appointed to consider the feasibility of introducing the manufacture of binding twine into the State prison, and recommends a $25,000 plant for experimental purposes.

Ignition of a Gas Well.

GLASGOW, Ky., June 25.—While boring a natural gas well near here to-day a gas engine gas became ignited and William Toppoint and Charles King were fatally burned. The boring machinery was totally consumed.

Minister Ryan's Condition Improved.

CITY OF MEXICO, June 25.—The condition of United States Minister Ryan is slowly improving, and he is now thought to be out of danger.

Princeton Masons Have a New Temple.

PRINCETON, Ill., June 25.—The new Masonic temple was dedicated this afternoon and hundreds of people attended the banquet therein.

Progress.

It is very important in this age of vast material progress that a remedy be placed upon the market to the eye easily taken, acceptable to the stomach and healthy in its nature and effects. Possessing these qualities, Syrup of Figs is the one perfect laxative and most gentle diuretic known.

BRUTAL MURDER.

A Traveling Agent Beaten to Death with a Coupling Pin.

OTTAWA, Ill., June 25.—A bloody and brutal murder was committed in this city last night. The deed was done just outside the rays of the electric light in Allen park. It was probably committed early in the evening.

The victim was David Moore, a traveling man, representing the Scott Lumber company of Merrill, Wis. He was probably decoyed to the park and there brutally beaten to death with a coupling pin and a bolt.

The body presented a horrible appearance and the pockets were turned inside out. In an inner pocket of his vest, securely fastened with safety pins, was $140 in currency.

The affair creates great excitement and some sensational developments are likely to occur.

LATER—Since the discovery of the bloody corpse of David N. Moore, the traveling man, developments have been rapid. It is now established that he was decoyed to Allen park by a woman by the name of Mrs. George Ford and a man by the name of Gray, and these persons are the murderers.

The woman was seen at an early hour walking nervously about the streets. After the discovery of the body she made numerous inquiries about the affair. State's Attorney Blake got a clew and ordered her arrest. She was taken to the state's attorney's office and after a brief examination taken to jail.

During the morning she was seen to tear up a memorandum book and throw it away. The cover and the pieces of the book were gathered up and identified as belonging to Moore.

When confronted with these evidences the woman broke down and made a confession.

An hour after Ford and Gray were arrested. They had been hanging around the streets and were engaged in conversation with the woman. The latter was married to Ford only two weeks ago.

RAN HIM OUT OF THE GROUNDS.

Methodist Campers Deal Out Justice to an Offender at Naperville, Ill.

NAPERVILLE, Ill., June 25.—It is reported that there were sensational proceedings last night by the Methodist campers who are holding protracted meetings in a grove about a mile west of this city. A delinquent husband, whose wife had been away from him for some time, was taken into custody by the campers and given a sound Christian chastisement. The individual in question was led to the front by several pious friends at last night's meeting and asked to confess. Songs and prayers were the order of the program. The subject was warned, entreated, and commanded to confess his sin before the congregation, but in vain. About 10 o'clock the morning the whole camp was again in commotion, and the unrelenting culprit of righteous indignation was run out of the grounds.

BERNHARDT'S CLOSE CALL.

The French Actress Takes an Overdose of Chloral.

LONDON, June 25.—Sarah Bernhardt has passed through another startling experience. On retiring last night at her hotel she followed her custom of taking a dose of chloral to assist her sleep. Through some accident she took a dose of chloral of an excessive proper quantity. Early this morning her maid was aroused by Miss Bernhardt's heavy breathing, and finding she could not arouse her hastily summoned Dr. Vintus, the physician of the French embassy, who by prompt measures succeeded in arousing the actress from her unconscious state.

Dr. Vintus said a delay of but a few minutes would have proved fatal to her. Miss Bernhardt is entirely out of danger, though extremely weak and nervous from the shock to her system.

THE CORDAGE COMBINE.

It Will Control the Business of the Entire World.

OTTAWA, Ont., June 25.—Two new cordage companies have just been incorporated, each with a capital of $1,000,000. The two concerns have secured control of all the twine and cordage factories in Canada. The object of this consolidating the cordage business of the Dominion is to work in accord with the manufacturers in the United States who control the world's supply of raw material, and thereby to obtain the benefit of decreased prices for the raw material. The American combine was caused by the high prices demanded by the producers of hemp in South America and Philippine Islands. Some of the members of the American syndicate are interested in the new Canadian companies.

Cutting Down the Forces.

WARREN, Ind., June 25.—The city of Huntington is greatly exercised over the discharge of all but nineteen of the men employed in the Chicago and Atlantic railway shops located at that place. Until recently 200 or more men were employed there, but every few days several men were discharged, until but 102 were left. Yesterday morning eighty-three more were laid off. The receiver says he is compelled to do this to cut down expenses, as the road is to be taken out of his hands in August.

We Propose To Hustle

for a few days on "FOREST PARK". The new water main is complete and we will sell 10 or 12 lots along that main for either improvement, immediately, or to be improved during the next year, at fully $100 PER LOT less than they are worth. You will never have so good a time as now to get into the Forest. Janesville is bound to grow right along, things are shaping that way. The Third ward is the coming location for homes. The "FOREST" is some of the best of that ward, why hesitate!

Yours very truly,

GEO. L. & SARAH H. CARRINGTON.

One of Janesville's "Old Landmarks" was heard to remark a day or two since (referring to our proposed operations on the BURR ROBBINS farm), "Why do these people open up outside property, when I have so much inside?" The inside property referred to is "inside" some other ward, than the Third, but every foot is less accessible, far less desirable than any of ours. We have no contention with any other owner or any other property; we know every sensible person in this city, who is unbiased, knows that all our holdings WITHOUT EXCEPTION are the finest in the city at our asking price. Our RESULTS show this to be the case.

THE GAZETTE.

JAMESVILLE, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 25.

Private copies from Elkhorn indicate that Senator Cooper, of Racine, will be the coming man for congressional honors in this district.

According to the New Orleans Times-Democrat the census returns from some parishes in Louisiana indicate that the whites are increasing in a greater ratio than the blacks in that state. In Red River parish, for instance, the increase in the last decade has been, whites 41.2 per cent negroes 27.3 per cent.

Rev. A. M. Carter, chairman of the First District Congressional Committee, is in correspondence with his colleagues on the committee concerning the calling of the convention for the nomination of a republican candidate for congress. Mr. Carter informs the Gazette that the meeting will probably be called to meet at Clinton Junction on September 31.

Mr. Walt Whitman writes to a friend in Boston that he is putting in order a little six or eight page account to his book, and that, he says, "I will probably be the first" adding: "I get out almost daily in my wheel chair. Was out yesterday down to river there, and stayed there an hour; cloudy weather now, fourth day, but entirely pleasant. Have a good nurse, but a book occasionally, get along better than you might think, anyhow. Have some pretty bad spells, some talkers, borer, questioners (hateful)."

A man working in the interest of the Louisiana lottery scheme has been lynched by an indignant mob. Northern men are accustomed to call lynching by its rightful name of murder, but this crime, bad as it is, serves to demonstrate how strong the feeling against the lottery company is. It will be a pity, indeed, if after the brave fight made by the better class of people in that state the owners of this shameful company are allowed to continue their business under the seal of approval of the Louisiana legislature.

In a paper which was read before the Congregational Association at Mount Holyoke the other day, Professor Monroe of Amherst, attempted to show that the general worship is working a harmful separation in American society. It is no exaggeration to say that the rich and the poor, besides the summer report movement takes away from civil life some of its most important elements, even the church joining in the hearse. There is a good deal in the point here made, and it is worthy of consideration by social philosophers.

An eccentric old gentleman recently knocked out a whole graduating class in a leading eastern college. He got the boys together, the day before commencement, and told them that he would give $10 to every man who would answer correctly two plain, everyday questions. The questions were as follows: "What is the origin of the common phrase 'to hope against hope'?" And "why is the human ear shaped as it is, instead of being flat?" Not a man answered the questions correctly, and the old gentleman went away declaring that college was a failure.

The population of New York city, according to the estimates given a day or two since by the supervisors of the census, amounts in round numbers to 1,700,000. The returns actually received so far foot up 1,627,237, and the outstanding reports of the thirty-five regular enumerators who were assigned to public and semi-public institutions, will, it is expected, easily bring the number up to 1,700,000. The population of the city therefore, shows an increase of half a million since the last census of 1880, when the number of the inhabitants was declared to amount to 1,200,000.

While all England, says a writer in The Liverpool Mercury, is continuing to fete Mr. Stanley, it is not pleasant to reflect that his great predecessor in African exploration, Sir Richard Burton, is lying very dangerously ill, neglected and alone, in London lodgings. Yet in his time and in his own way the elder traveler accomplished even more remarkable feats than the hero of the hour. His romantic pilgrimage to Mecca and Elabediah in the disguise of a Moslem slave, his journey through Berberia to the sacred city of Mecca, where no other infidel foot has ever trodden, were but preliminaries to the great achievement of his life, the discovery paved the way for all that has since been done in Central Africa, and but for the failure of his resources, Captain Burton would undoubtedly have reaped much of the honor which has gone to others.

The cry of the opposition party in England against the election of Heligoland is grotesque in view of the fact that for years past a strong demand of the British has been that England should give up, not only that island, but other of her holdings, and that without money and without price. The price which England now receives for Heligoland is 200,000. The former may be the key to the German North Sea coast; but the latter is the key to all East Africa. And while England does not and probably never will want to lose the former, she is even now using the latter to the tune of many million dollars a year, and in the immediate future will make use of it for untold thousands of stores of wealth. It is a noteworthy incident, this, a bargain, so important in its immediate bearings and so far-reaching in its ultimate effects, should have been concluded without a war or a rumor of war. The fact is almost unique in the history of European powers.

The Illinois Central Strike Assumes Serious Proportions—Especially to Suburban Traffic.

ALL TRAFFIC SUSPENDED AT CHICAGO.

Passenger, Suburban and Freight Trains Paralyzed by the Action of the Employees.

Chicago, June 25.—The Illinois Central strike has assumed serious proportions, inasmuch as it now involves the entire suburban traffic of the road. Yesterday afternoon 1,000 conductors, switchmen and brakemen in the employ of the Illinois Central quit work, owing to the announced intention of Supt. Russell to dismiss Trishman Berry and his assistant, Fred E. Puskie. Mr. Berry and Mr. Puskie, however, refused to go to headquarters and the strike was on. The news spread rapidly through the yards and around the switchmen and trainmen to such a pitch of indignation that they immediately decided to quit work. Superintendent Russell has repeatedly ordered the strikers to return to work, but they have refused to do so. The men are ready to strike and remain until such time as Superintendent Russell should be dismissed from the service of the company.

Yesterday afternoon all suburban and Washington park trains were allowed to run, but this morning it was decided to suspend all suburban traffic. A meeting of the strikers was held at noon in the down-town yards, and the men decided to stop the running of all trains except those carrying the United States mail.

Accordingly, as fast as the suburban trains came in this morning they were side-tracked, the men ordered off, and the road was closed. The men are now in the down-town yards, and the men decided to stop the running of all trains except those carrying the United States mail.

Methodist Campers Deal Out Justice to an Offender at Naperville, Ill.

Naperville, Ill., June 25.—It is reported that there were sensational proceedings last night by the Methodist campers who are holding protracted meetings in a grove about a mile west of this city. A delinquent husband, who they ascertained had run away from his wife in company with a woman of every reputation, was set upon and given a sound Christian chastisement.

The individual in question was led to the front by several pious friends at last night's meeting and asked to confess. Songs and prayers were the order of the program. The subject was warned, exhorted, and commanded to confess his sin before the congregation, but in vain. About 6 o'clock this morning the whole camp was again in commotion, and the delinquent culprit of righteous indignation was run out of the grounds.

BERNHARDT'S CLOSE CALL.

The French Actress Takes an Overdose of Opium. Lorraine, June 25.—Sarah Bernhardt has passed through another startling experience. On retiring last night at her hotel she followed her custom of taking a few drops of opium to induce sleep. Through some accident she took a dose in excess of the proper quantity. Early this morning her maid was aroused by Miss Bernhardt's heavy breathing, and finding she could not arouse her hastily summoned Dr. Vintura, the physician of the French embassy, who by prompt measures succeeded in arousing the actress from her unconscious state.

Dr. Vintura said a delay of but a few minutes would have proved fatal to her. Miss Bernhardt is entirely out of danger to-day, though extremely weak and nervous from the shock to her system.

THE CORDAGE COMBINE.

It Will Control the Business of the Entire World. OTTAWA, Ont., June 25.—Two new cordage companies have just been incorporated, each with a capital of $1,000,000. The two concerns have secured control of all the twine and cordage factories in Canada. The object of this consolidation is to control the business of the Dominion is to work in accord with the manufacturers in the United States and to control the world's supply of raw material, and thereby to obtain the benefit of decreased prices for the raw material. The American combine was caused by the high prices demanded by the producers of hemp in Sicily, America and Philippine Islands. Some of the members of the American syndicate are interested in the new Canadian companies.

Cutting Down the Forces. WARREN, Ind., June 25.—The city of Huntington is greatly exercised over the discharge of all except a skeleton of the men employed in the Chicago and Gary electric railway shops located at that place. Until recently 200 or more men were employed there, but every few days several men were discharged, until but few were left. Yesterday morning thirty-three more were laid off. The receiver says he is compelled to do this to cut down expenses, as the road is to be taken out of his hands in August.

Only Common Bandits. SAN ANTONIO, Texas, June 25.—An attempt in Mexico turns out to be an attempt of bandits to plunder the people. Last Friday the bandits attacked a train near Monterrey loaded with gold and silver bullion for the United States.

In the fight that ensued four bandits were killed and their leader captured and shot.

Making Good Use of Convicts. ST. PAUL, Minn., June 25.—Gov. Merriam has given his sanction to the report of the committee recently appointed to consider the feasibility of introducing the manufacture of building twine into the State prison, and recommends a $25,000 plant for experimental purposes.

Ignition of a Gas Well. GLASGOW, Ky., June 25.—While boring a natural gas well near here to-day the escaping gas became ignited and William Topoint and Charles King were fatally burned. The boring machinery was totally consumed.

Mutual Ryan's Condition Improved. CHICAGO, June 25.—The condition of United States Minister Ryan is slowly improving, and he is now thought to be out of danger.

Rectification Masons Have a New Temple. PUNSCOTT, Ill., June 25.—The new Masonic temple was dedicated this afternoon and hundreds of people attended the banquet therein.

Possessing these qualities, Syrup of Figs is the one perfect laxative and most gentle diuretic known.

BRUTAL MURDER.

A Traveling Agent Beaten to Death with a Coupling Pin.

OTTAWA, Ill., June 25.—A bloody and brutal murder was committed in this city last night. The deed was done just outside the rays of the electric light in Allen park. It was a traveling man, representing the Scott Lumber company of Merrill, Wis. He was probably decoyed to the park and there brutally beaten to death with a coupling pin and body.

The body presented a horrible appearance and the pockets were turned inside out. In an inner pocket of his vest, securely fastened with safety pins, was $140 in currency.

The affair creates great excitement and some sensational developments are likely to occur.

Since the discovery of the bloody corpse of David N. Moore, the traveling man, developments have been rapid. It is now established that he was decoyed to Allen park by a woman by the name of Mrs. George Ford and a man by the name of George, and these persons are the murderers.

The woman was seen at an early hour walking nervously about the streets. Her discovery of the body she made numerous inquiries about the affair. State's Attorney Dinko got a warrant for the arrest of the woman and ordered her arrest. She was taken to the state's attorney's office and a brief examination taken to jail.

During the morning she was seen to tear up a memorandum book and throw it away. The cover and the pieces of the book were gathered up and identified as belonging to Moore.

When confronted with these evidences the woman broke down and made a confession.

An hour after Ford and Gray were arrested. They had been hanging around the street and were soon engaged in conversation with the woman. The latter was married to Ford only two weeks ago.

RAN HIM OUT OF THE GROUNDS.

We Propose To Hustle

for a few days on "FOREST PARK". The new water main is complete and we will sell 10 or 12 lots along that main for either improvement immediately, or to be improved during the next year, at fully $100 per lot less than they are worth. You will never have so good a time as now to get into the Forest. Janeville is bound to grow right along, things are shaping that way. The Third ward is the coming location for homes. The "Forest" is some of the best of that word, why hesitate!

Yours very truly, GEO. L. & SARAH H. CARRINGTON.

One of Janeville's "Old Landmarks"

was heard to remark a day or two since (referring to our proposed operations on the Burn Romain's farm), "Why do these people open up outside property, when I have so much inside?" The inside property referred to is "inside" some other yard, than the Third, but every foot is less accessible, far less desirable than any of ours. We have no contention with any other owner or any other property; we know, every sensible person in this city, who is unbiased, knows that all our holdings without exception are the finest in the city at our asking price. Our results show this to be the case.

Yours very truly, GEO. L. & SARAH H. CARRINGTON.

Seasonable Suggestions

We advertise cheerfully—but effectively, by marking what you want most, lowest. This the opposite of what you desire is doubly sure, and in the long run to us.

The Lightning Ice Cream Freezer

For example, it is the best on the market, and every body likes it; yet we mark it specially low.

Hammocks,

Too, we've quite a number of styles and prices in them, and no one but wants a hammock when we've got them.

Refrigerators and Baby Cabs.

The best makes on the market, yet at prices of the poorest.

Tableware.

Not only low price, but a range of prices and good values even at the lowest. We're sure.
